GRAFTON

Young Men's Christian Association Team Plays Scholastics Tonight.

A fast basketball game is expected by local basketball fans when the Scholastics clash with the strong Grafton Young Men's Christian Association team tonight at the Mt. State Transfer Company's hall on East Pike street. The Grafton team defeated the Scholastics in one of the first games played this season.

Since defeated by the Grafton team the Scholastics have been greatly strengthened and are confident of a victory in the game tonight. The Scholastics will start the game with their regular line-up, and if the game is close the first team will play the entire game.

A preliminary game will be played by the Scholastic second team and a team representing the Methodist church gymnasium, starting at 7:30 o'clock. The big game will start immediately after the close of the first game.
